

CASE Safety Course Description

CASE Safety is a module that helps strengthen safety instruction in agricultural education classrooms. Safety has three components: education, evaluation, and enforcement. The curriculum is designed as a supplemental tool to educate and evaluate general shop and agriscience lab applications. Students' inquiry about general safety hazards and personal responsibilities through engaging strategies. Locally, a teacher should use additional instruction and assessments for equipment specific to shop equipment.

Topics include:

- General Safety
- Shop Safety
- Lab Safety
- SAE Safety

